Friends,

We are so excited to welcome you to this year's Presidential Gala, "Sheehan She Can", the Inaugural Ball for our beloved synagogue president, Frances Sheehan.

We first met Frances more than 20 years ago, when she and Rick relocated to this area in 1990. We became close friends seemingly overnight, only later discovering what an amazing person Frances actually is. She works tirelessly in her highly successful professional career and always finds time to volunteer in the community, most notably at Ohev Shalom but also elsewhere. She maintains a loving relationship with her husband and is the mother of two wonderful children. Finally, despite her seemingly endless commitments, she finds the time to be there as a good friend. How she has the energy for all her passions is a bit of a mystery to us. We have spent enough time with her to actually witness her sleep!

By virtue of your support, generosity and attendance at this affair, you are joining us in celebrating Frances' enormous dedication to our synagogue community. Thanks to all of you for helping us to applaud her efforts!

We were honored when Frances asked us to chair this event that celebrates her presidency. However, so many individuals made this Inaugural Ball possible. These dedicated volunteers spent many, many hours bringing forth their creativity and doing the real work that is essential for an event such as this to be successful. Their names are displayed on the following pages.

Thanks also to the many friends, professional associates, and businesses who reached out in recognition and support of Frances' achievements.

Julie Harris Silverstein, Lauren and Steve Katz

A Message From Our President

Chaverim,

Gratifying, rewarding, exhilarating, humbling, awe-inspiring. These are just some of the words to describe my nine months so far as your synagogue president. Before my term began I had other past presidents describe their time as rewarding and I did believe them because I've led other nonprofit boards and, of course, I report to a Board of Directors in my work at the Brandywine Health Foundation. So I see what a difference a dedicated president or chair can make. But to be in the thick of it and to have been given this special opportunity to lead a spiritual community with my talented fellow board members, and at a time when we have such a strong and cohesive staff—well, I really cannot say enough about what an overall “life highlight” this has been already.

During these nine months there have been particular memorable moments large and small, and most certainly this President's Ball is one of them already. Just driving into Ohev Shalom's parking lot (have I told you how much I love my parking space?) and seeing the “Sheehan, She-Can” ‘yard signs’ is an indication of the creativity so many of you bring to the table, and is a daily reminder of how much hard work you put into sustaining our shul in so many ways. Whether it's a fundraising event, the musical show, our Ohevy Hitters, special events like the Second Seder, day-to-day work like the Budget and Audit and the School Committees—none of this happens without somebody, and often more than one somebody, saying “Ohev Shalom is my community too, how can I help?”

Three of those “somebodies” I cannot thank enough are Steve and Lauren Katz, and Julie Silverstein for agreeing immediately to co-chair the event when I asked them last summer. Along with Penni Starer, you encouraged Rick and I to join Ohev Shalom two decades ago. We will always be grateful to you for giving us the opportunity to be part of this special community.

And of course to the hard-working committee members and volunteers, and generous sponsors and donors, who have given their treasure, talent and time to make this event such a success, thank you for strengthening the chain, lighting the spark, and bringing Judaism to Life in Delaware County. Sheehan, She-Can, because We-Can Together.

With heartfelt thanks,

Frances
